President's Message John R. DiSessa, CEC, AAC

Fellow Epicurean Club members,

I hope this message finds you and your families healthy and well.

Spring is the most pleasant season. It brings happiness and feelings of joy along with its beautiful flower blossoms, chirping birds, warm and pleasant sun.

Access free training, upcoming conference news and travel information pertaining to Covid-19, The ACF National Home Page is a great resource.

It is also the time for rebirth, new beginnings, and inspiration. As the weather starts to get warmer and the Covid-19 virus starts to slow down, we long to focus on getting our lives and routines back to normal. Club meetings, family barbecues and golf outings are a few things we all look forward to attending. But, for the time being, we are still practicing social distancing.

BOARD MEETING

The Epicurean Club of Boston's second virtual board meeting was a huge success. We were able to take care of the typical business and responsibilities it takes to run a successful club. Our all-volunteer board is working hard to ensure that our club stays relevant and continues to grow with common trends. We look forward to serving you.

The Jimmy D. Golf Outing Fundraiser will be postponed to October 19th. Stay tuned for details.

Enjoy two online courses created by the American Egg Board and Rouxbe.

"Egg Foundations" immerses you in all things eggs from purchasing strategies to eggs on the menu for both made-to-order and high-volume made-to-hold operations. Upon completion, you will have all the skills needed to master basic egg cooking techniques in food-service operations. Earn 25 CEH's!

Improve your understanding of the many functional roles egg products can serve in food production and food product development with the American Egg Board's Egg Functionality course. The video-based content in this course is tailored for food scientists, research chefs and culinologists. The course covers egg science as it relates to foaming, aeration, coagulation, crystallization control, coating, appearance and Oregano is considered a staple herb in many cuisines around the world. It has a strong flavor and brings warmth to dishes, along with a hint of subtle sweetness. It can be found fresh, dried or as an oil, and all are said to have significant health benefits.

Medicinal Herbs
